Hanalei Events.

Mrs. C. B. Makee gave a delightful Poi Luncheon at her beautiful home Hale Oia, on Saturday the 28th. of October in honor of Mrs. C. W. Hudson who has been her guest for the past six weeks.

The table was prettily decorated with Ferns and Flox petals, a handsome cut glass vase filled with Flox in the center of the table giving a pleasing effect.

The table was loaded with Hawaiian delicacies which were much enjoyed by all the guests.

After luncheon Mrs. Menefoglio who is a skilled musician played a number of selections on the piano which were much appreciated.

The afternoon passed all too quickly and the guest departed wishing Mrs. Hudson who returns to Honolulu in a few days a pleasant trip. Those present were Mrs. C. W. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Menefoglio, Mr. and Mrs. Riedel, Mrs. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Birkmyer, and Mr. and Mrs. Makee.

Master Jim Hudson was the host on Saturday afternoon, the 21st of October at a party in honor of his seventh birthday, at Mrs. C. B. Makee's lovely home. After a bountiful repast of Ice Cream Sandwiches, Cakes Candies and Sweet drinks, the host and his little guests enjoyed themselves to their hearts content in numerous games.

Master Jim was the recipient of many presents and hopes to have many more such lucky birthdays. His guests were the two MacKenzie's from Haena, the three Sanborns, the two Deverills, and his little sister Genevieve.

Mrs. C. A. Rice.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Rice entertained at a family dinner at their charming Kalapaki home last Thursday evening, places being laid for eleven.

Mrs. Rohrig's Tea.

The beautiful home of Mrs. H. Rohrig was the scene of a delightful gathering last Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Rohrig was hostess to a number of the Lihue ladies at an unusually pleasing afternoon tea. The parlor was a perfect bower of extremely handsome white chrysanthemums, while the land where the guests busily plied their needles—for each guest had taken along her work—was daintily bedecked with snapdragons and maiden-hair ferns. The dining room, where delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, tea, ice-cream and cakes were served, was tastefully decorated in yellow chrysanthemums.

Those enjoying Mrs. Rohrig's hospitality were Mrs. W. H. Rice Jr., Mrs. C. A. Rice, Mrs. A. H. Rice, Mrs. Philip Rice, Mrs. Putman, Miss Bishop and Mrs. Carter.

Mokihana Meet.

The members of the Mokihana Club, Lihue's women's social club, met in the Lihue Hall last Wednesday at two p. m. and enjoyed the following very excellent program which was arranged by Mrs. W. N. Stewart:

1 Violin solo—Wagoner's "Prize Song"—Mrs. F. Putman.
2 Reading—"Charles the Great"—Mrs. Rohrig.

3 Vocal solo—"Habanera" from Carmen—Mrs. W. H. Rice, Jr.

4 Reading—"The Descendants of Charlemagne"—Mrs. Lydgate.

5 Violin solo—"Dradla's Souvenir"—Mrs. F. Putman.

6 Reading—Selection from the "Reingeld"—Mrs. H. Isenberg.

7 Piano solo—"Kulan's Romances"—Mrs. de Bretteville.

The hostesses were Mrs. J. M. Lydgate, and Mrs. A. S. Wilcox, while the presiding officers for the year, are Mrs. R. L. Wilcox, president; Mrs. C. A. Rice, vice-president; Miss Lottie Jordan, secretary; Mrs. H. Rohrig, treasurer.

A work committee is also maintained, which is composed of the following prominent members of the club: Mrs. Hans Isenberg, (chairman.) Mrs. W. H. Rice, Jr., Mrs. J. M. Lydgate, Mrs. H. Rohrig, and Miss Mabel Wilcox. The chief subject for the afternoon was "Germany" and was dealt with in a masterful manner.

To The People Of Kauai

Grasp this opportunity before it is too late! A few dollars properly invested might put you on Easy Street. Be assertive and take a chance. If you fail, go to it again. Wealthy people were poor, but took a chance and made good. Your timid men work for a salary and rent a house all their lives. They lack nerve to assert themselves. A trip to the Coast or an auto ride would cover their savings for a year. The farmer takes a chance when he plants; the ship may sink; your house may burn down, but only a coward loses courage.

1 copy from Los Angeles Herald, received on this mail:

"Lakeview No. 2 Oil Co. Hits Big Gas Well—Mud and Water Thrown High Over the Derrick."

"It is thought by out men who have visited the property that the company is just over the main oil sand, and that within the next few feet the well will encounter a flow that will compare favorably with the new well of the Lakeview, the Consolidated Midway, the standard and other producers of that locality."

"The fact that when the gas pressure in this well broke loose there was over 4200 feet of water in the hole, and before the shale could leave up into the casing this whole column of water had to be lifted by the gas pressure, leads those who are keeping close tabs on conditions in this vicinity to believe that something more than common can be looked for when this well penetrates to the main sand."

A deep well assures a big gusher for years, as it drains the oil from the upper levels.

Lakeview No. 1—stock cost $100. and sold for $20.00 per share.

The price of Lakeview No. 2 is now $100. and have no doubt it will jump to $10.00 per share.

This is your opportunity to take a gamble in almost a sure proposition.

Men and women desiring of improving their condition in life should read this carefully as act quickly as no more shares will be sold after the well comes in.

I have only a few thousand shares left.

Wireless or mail me the number of shares your order requires with full payment, and accompany same with your remittance to cover one third. Balance in 30 days.

KAUAI'S EMPORIUM.

The goods we buy at Kauai's Emporium

Are of such splendid value we always want more of 'em.

Its delivery's so prompt, its clerks so attentive,

To trade there entirely 'tis quite an incentive.

It keeps a large stock in each conceivable line,

And its "Ready-to-Wear" is truly most fine.

It keeps dry goods of all shades from yellow to brown,

And aught that its "out of" 'twill get you from town.

So we'll send all our orders to Lihue's fine store,

And when our bargains we see, we'll wish we'd spent more.—A Brunette Customer.

The above took the third prize in our late phrase contest, and, while not applying entirely to the full conditions of the contest, yet is so expressive of our policy as to gain our full appreciation.

Ask for anything you need. If we haven't got it, we will get it for you, and get it as reasonably as any store in the Territory.

Our Mr. de Lacy is going to Honolulu Saturday to finish up our Christmas buying, and any special orders left to him will receive his personal attention.
